

UPCOMING MEETING LOCATION CHANGES

We will conduct our October and November meetings at the Apple Blossom Community Room. It is the smaller building closest to the road on the Apple Blossom Property located at 2501 N. 22nd Street, Rogers. Please park on the street if you can. Please do not park across the street as that is not part of the Apple Blossom property.

October 20th Guest Speaker: AFRW President Tricia Greene
Topic: Post convention update and a comparison of Republican and Democrat ideals

November 17 Guest Speaker:
Dr. Janine Parry, University of Arkansas Political Science
Topic: "Rising Political Hypothesis"

We, as always, welcome volunteers to arrive early to help set-up the room. We have approved a budget of $8.00 per person for lunch to be catered. RSVPs to each meeting are very welcomed so that we do not waste food or end up not having enough for everyone. RSVP to Susan Johnston. Attendees will be responsible for up to $8.00 per person for lunch at each meeting. We will try to keep the cost under $8.00 whenever possible. Be prepared to pay Bettye Platte at each meeting for

July & August Appreciation

A very special thank you to Ms. Keri Wilkerson, Executive Director, Rogers Wellness Center for speaking to our club in July.

Also many thanks to State Senator Cecile Bledsoe for her informative presentation at our August meeting about the National Health Care debate.

The moving presentation at our August meeting from one of our Single Parent Scholarship recipients should serve as a reminder to us all of the many blessings we take for granted every day in this great country.

AFRW News Corner

Ann Adams will be attending the NFRW Biennial Convention as our club's delegate.
